

Craig Cameron's Guts and Glory 100-Mile Horse Ride

Benefitting the:

Thursday, November 6, 2014 through Saturday, November 8, 2014

The second annual Guts and Glory 100-Mile Horse Ride to benefit the Special Operations Warrior Foundation will take Craig and his invited guests, including well-known rodeo stars and horsemen, from Goldthwaite to Bluff Dale in stages over November 6, 7, and 8 2014.

Members of the public may join Craig for the final leg of the ride on Saturday, November 8, which begins in Hico, TX and ends in Bluff Dale, TX.

Mark your calendars for the BBQ dinner and auction being held Friday evening, November 7th, 2014. (Details listed below).

For information about the route and other details of the event go to www.craigcameron.com
Craig Cameron organized this ride in 2013 to raise awareness and funds for the SOWF, a top-rated nonprofit organization that, for 34 years, has supported Army, Navy, Air Force and Marine Corps Special Operations personnel and their families by providing college scholarships for the children of fallen Special Ops Forces and family advocacy services to families of wounded Special Ops soldiers. To learn more about the Special Operations Warrior Foundation, please visit the SOWF website at www.specialops.org

You can join in supporting this worthy cause by participating in one or more of several ways:
